LR 5
LB 468 thru 471

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Is there any further discussion on the adoption of the resolution concerning Jack Cavanaugh? Chair recognizes Senator Warner. I'm just asking if there is any further discussion on the resolution. Senator Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. President, since we have, obviously, more than enough for a vote, I'd ask that this be a unanimous vote on behalf of each and every member of the Legislature.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Motion has been made that this be a.... We'll have to have a machine vote, Senator Lewis, on this. I'm going to call for a machine vote at this time. I see no others wishing to be recognized. I'm going to call for an official machine vote at this time. We are now voting on the resolution honoring the memory of Jack Cavanaugh. Have you all had an opportunity to vote? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 35 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on motion to adopt.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: The resolution has been adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Resolution 5 is ready for your signature.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: I have Legislative Resolution 5. I purport to sign Resolution 5, and I do sign Legislative Resolution 5.

CLERK: Some new bills, Mr. President. (Read title to LB 468 and LB 469). Mr. President, Legislative Reference Report refers LB 391 through 436. (Read title to LB 470). That is all I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Does everyone have all the bills that they want to get in before we adjourn? We have notice that there are a couple more, so we are waiting for them right now. Those of you who have any more bills, we're about to consider the motion to adjourn, so get them up here.

CLERK: (Read title to LB 471). That is all, Mr. President. Mr. President, I move we adjourn until Tuesday, January 26th at 9 o'clock. Signed, Senator Savage.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Motion to adjourn by Senator Savage. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned until 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.
